PARENTS:

Do you feel like you're the only one struggling to raise children in today's world?

Do you wish your family members communicated better with each other?

Are your children making choices that have negative outcomes?

Does your child need help with homework?

Do you want your child to know the importance of volunteerism?

Is your teenager looking for a place to fit in?

The Family Resource Center has many FREE confidential programs available to you and your family.

Resource and referral information available.

The Family Resource Center (FRC) provides Youth and Family Services to Families with children 7-17 years old in Western Wayne County.

The center offers after school and summer programs that provide opportunities for positive, pro-social development.
